

Trainer Information Sheet

Carin is a true third culture person. Born in California, moved to New Zealand at eleven years of age and returned to California at 18 to attend University, she also spent a year as an exchange student in Stockholm, Sweden. Her passion for travelling led her across Asia and she met her Italian husband while in India. They remained in India for seven years and another six years in Eastern Europe and Ukraine heading up an NGO and humanitarian projects. Mother of five sons she was a very involved home school educator for several years, as well as training volunteers for the various projects.

Upon returning to Italy Carin completed the CELTA training and began teaching adults and professionals. She loves her work and is skilled in analysing students' unique needs and tailoring her tutoring strategies to meet their goals. Apart from teaching, she still loves travelling and enjoys "beautiful Umbria" with her husband and family.
