

Trainer Information Sheet

Leslie lived and worked in downtown NYC for many years. Her Professional experience includes: Sotheby's NYC - Latin American art; Simplicity Pattern Company NYC - Fashion stylist, coordinator; Photographic Stylist and Producer - New York City

Produced beauty ads and fashion catalogues for major designers, photographers and art directors in NYC, Chicago, Miami and Los Angeles. In charge of budgets, booking models, hair and makeup artists, catering, locations, permits, insurance, travel arrangements for models and crew. She worked as a freelance fashion stylist for various photographers and companies in New York

Leslie has been working for the The Language Center in Todi for many years. She teaches general and business English with a focus on using language accurately, reviewing grammar, vocabulary building, clutter reduction and improving pronunciation. Her objective is to help students become clearer and more effective speakers. As well as helping professionals polish up presentation skills, negotiation and sales pitches, she also prepares students for various exams and certificates.

Leslie has a bachelor of fine arts degree from Rutgers' University. She attended Mason Gross School of the Arts New Brunswick, New Jersey. She studied The Meisner Technique with William Esper and Katherine Gately. She also uses her training in the Alexander Technique (Bruce Fertman) and vocal training (Martin Waldron) directly in her presentation classes.