Maria Chiara Catipon

Born in the Philippines and raised in Los Angeles, Chiara graduated in New York in Political Science, followed by a Master of Arts in English. In addition, she has earned an English teaching credential from the State of California for secondary schools.

In her work as an English language and literature teacher for over 13 years, she has become specialized in various teaching techniques in multicultural settings. Since she arrived in Italy six years ago, she has worked in Rome and Florence as a translator and interpreter for an international organization aimed at peace education.

Always open to new experiences, she now wants to immerse herself in Umbria through the Language Center. In her free time, albeit little, she likes to take walks, listen to music and play the guitar.
