

Trainer Information Sheet

Peter had an illustrious career as a Commercial lawyer practising in Manchester UK. Acting for large, medium and small companies in the UK and overseas (mainly in the US and Europe but also in some emerging countries).

He continued in this field with First National Managing Partner of Eversheds, now one of the UK's largest law firms. Responsible for the creation of a single national firm by the integration of a number of firms throughout the UK.

Peter is a methodical teacher who takes his students' needs and objectives seriously and guides them on a journey of achievement. He is willing to embrace a broad range of materials and flex his method to the student he is working with.