

Trainer Information Sheet

Viktoria moved from Australia to Italy in 1979 and attended the University in Perugia. She later worked for the Lungarotti Winery in Torgiano as Translator and Public Relations Officer for a period of 3 years.

She then opened her own business in the fashion sector and opened 5 stores over the following four years. After having sold her flourishing business she decided to take up her teaching career and collaborated with the Public Education Department on special projects for teaching young people.

She has been working for The Todi Language Center for nearly 20 years and has extensive teaching experience with: individual and group business English in-company courses; general English and business English Full Immersion Courses; English for Hotel Management; Cambridge exam preparation at all levels. TOEFL / TRINITY / IELTS; 'Beyond Language' courses (NLP techniques to enhance language learning); Individual soft skills training programmes; managerial courses held on site in Milan for the Public Administration of the Regione Lombardia;

She has also collaborated as a trainer and advisor for specialized one-on-one full immersion business courses and co-written various soft skills managerial programs.